

Meeting statutory guidance with the ASDAN PSHE Short Course

ASDAN's PSHE Short Course was updated in 2019 to assist centres in meeting the requirements of the new statutory guidance for sex, relationships and health education in England, which comes into effect in September 2020.

The Short Course comprises a student book and supporting tutor resource pack, which contains detailed session plans and supporting resources (eg worksheets, PowerPoints, information sheets).

Mapping the PSHE Short Course to statutory guidance for sex, relationships and health education

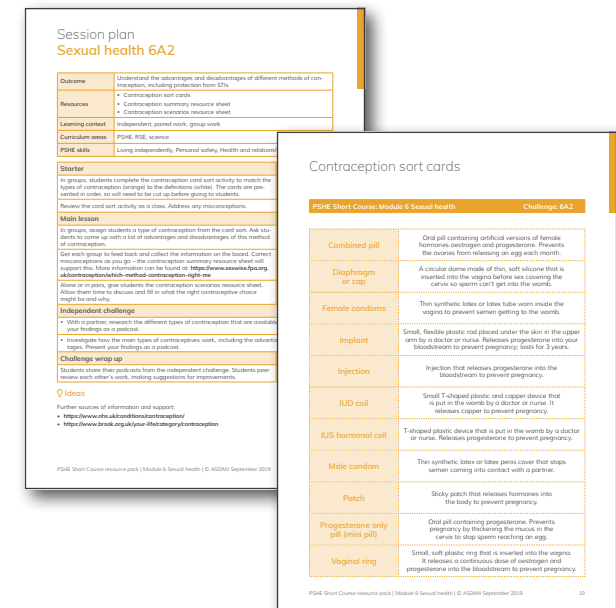

The tables below map the requirements outlined in the statutory guidance for secondary schools to challenges from the Short Course, as well as highlighting supporting resources available in the tutor resource pack.

The left-hand column lists the requirements of the statutory guidance for:

- Relationships and sex education (RSE)
- Physical health and mental wellbeing

The right-hand column identifies which challenges from the PSHE Short Course can be used to meet these requirements. For each challenge:

-  This icon indicates the challenge outcome
-  This icon indicates the supporting resources for this challenge in the PSHE Short Course tutor resource pack
